

COURSE MODULE W:01
INTRODUCTION TO WIGS & POSTICHE FOR FILM, THEATRE AND TELEVISION

Duration; 2 Days

Dates: Sunday 4th Feb and Mon 5th Feb 2018

Time: 9-30 until 5pm

Venue: Solo Salon

129 High St

Holywood, Co. Down

Northern Ireland BT22 2 XD

Fees: £375

This course is delivered by a professional hairdresser and make-up artist who has worked on productions like “Game of Thrones” & “Dracula Untold” as well as theatre, opera, film and television. She brings with her a wealth of experience that she puts to full use in the delivery of the course. The skills and techniques learnt provides the necessary basis for employment opportunities in the ever-growing industry of film, theatre & television.

This course offers an insight into skills needed to gain confidence in working with wigs and hairpieces and is ideally suited for those with or without hairdressing experience and those wanting to advance their careers

This course is a ‘hands on’ practical application of skills in:

- Etiquette, Code of Conduct, Health & Safety on set / behind scenes
- Fitting and cleaning of wigs and postiche
- Making a Template
- Preparation for wig fitting
- Maintenance of wigs and postiche during performances
- Removal, cleaning and storing of wigs and pastiche
- Setting & Styling for Period Styles

Please note:

- All wigs, hair pieces, tools and products are provided
- All courses start at 9.30am and finish at 5pm Sunday & Monday.
- All course fees are inclusive of VAT.
- You will be provided with all products & equipment needed for each course.
- Each student will receive an officially stamped certificate on completion of course.
- All courses can be tailored to your requirement.
- The number of students will be 6 per course, as this will enable the course tutor to spend more time individually with each student.
- We will discuss your possible career options during the course/s.